

Public Consultation

- ◆ The Roberts Bank Container Expansion Project will be advanced in a way that addresses local issues and delivers local benefits
- ◆ Effective, ongoing local consultations will occur throughout the development of this project - from design through to construction and operation
- ◆ Key consultation steps will include:
  - public open houses
  - distribution of project information (newsletters, advertisements, web)
  - meetings with federal, provincial and regional governments
  - meetings with Delta Council and staff
  - meetings with First Nations
  - meetings with business, environmental and community organizations
  - meetings with other interested parties in project area
  - presentations to various organizations
- ◆ At today's open house, public input is sought on issues to be studied during the project review
